

Does Freedom, Democracy and Justice REALLY exist for Canadians?

Beginning in kindergarten, we teach our young children to love their country and tell them that Canada is the best country in the world to live. Our children are told that Canada is the best democracy in the world and that in Canada we have the best system of justice second to none in the world. Yet, few of us Canadians have ever taken the time from our busy schedules to step into a local courthouse to see for ourselves just what is happening to our neighbours and fellow Canadians in our courts of law. Sadly, so many of us do not take the time to help when help is needed by others in our community.

But is Canada really the best place in the world to live? Do we really have the freedoms and democracy we think we have? Does Canada's justice system give Canadians real JUSTICE? A growing number of Canadians from all walks of life, both young and old, are now beginning to speak out and are telling their fellow Canadians that justice and equality in Canada are not what we have been led to believe as children and young adults.

All citizens of Canada are encouraged to find out about the little-known and dark side of Canada's system of justice by visiting this website:

Visit this website and learn another perspective of what Justice in Canada is really all about.

To help spread awareness, promote discussion and to help bring about positive change to Canada's broken down family justice system, please distribute this flyer to your friends and neighbours in your community by fax, e mail or hard copy. The future of YOUR children and our country depend on each one of us!
