

Dear Court Watch,

My children's lawyer is violating several of my rights, the following are the rights are the ones my lawyer is violating:

- By law I can talk about court matters with my Dad + mother
- I can send + receive letters from my father without them being stolen by my abusive mother
- I can demand my meetings be taped
- forcing me to say I want to live with my abusive mother when I don't
- I can have a support person with me
- I have the right to go to court
- I can speak to the judge

The rights above are being denied to me, so what can I do?

Your friend

age 11.